

Important information regarding the correct advertising for ANIMAL TRACKS and THE ANIMALS GREATEST HITS SHOW
and our Disclaimer

The band Animal Tracks that performs The Animals Greatest Hits Show comprises of five musicians: Steve Hutchinson (Keyboards), Howard Baker (Vocals), Trevor Sewell (Guitar), John Dawson (Bass guitar) and Paul Lindsay (Drums). They have all worked with some of the UK's finest bands and musicians in their musical careers, including being previous members of Hilton Valentines Animals, The Animals, Animals II, and Animals III.

The Animal Tracks show is a performance of the previous hit songs of the legendary 1960's UK band The Animals and also includes the band's newly recorded original songs. The Animals Greatest Hits Show is a live performance by the same above musicians performing the hit songs from The Animals over the years, as well as other related songs from that era.

It is important that all media publication and advertising for Animal Tracks and The Animals Greatest Hits Show accurately states the credibility of the band members, along with the correct usage of the band name.

The correct biographies for the members of the band are as follows;

STEVE HUTCHINSON was the longest serving keyboard player with The Animals and has performed and toured extensively with The Animals, Animals II, and Hilton Valentine's Animals alongside original Animal's guitarist Hilton Valentine, bass guitarist Chas Chandler, and original Animal's drummer John Steel. Steve then continued to tour with his own band Animals III, now named Animal Tracks.

HOWARD BAKER is an International vocalist, songwriter and recording artist with chart success in Europe and has toured and performed with many famous bands and musicians including the band Animals III. He has toured and performed with members of The Animals, Animals II, and Animals III and has also toured and performed with many other famous bands and musicians.

TREVOR SEWELL is a top UK guitarist who is also a multi award winning singer songwriter in the USA. He has toured and performed with members of The Animals, Animals II, and Animals III and many other famous bands and musicians.

JOHN DAWSON is a top UK bass guitarist who has performed and toured extensively with Animals III and has also toured and performed with members of The Animals, Animals II, and Animals III and many other famous bands and musicians.

PAUL LINDSAY is a top UK session percussionist from The Animals III band, and has toured and performed with members of The Animals, Animals II, and Animals III. He has also toured and performed with many other famous bands and musicians.

Promotion of the band

The band performs and promotes itself worldwide through various agents ONLY under the name of:
'ANIMAL TRACKS' or 'THE ANIMALS GREATEST HITS SHOW ... performed by the band Animal Tracks'

Promotion can also state that the show is 'Performed by previous members of The Animals'

NO other variation of the above names can be used for promotion and the show must NOT be promoted simply as 'The Animals'.
(The name 'The Animals' is a registered Trade Mark held by Eric Burdon and it must not be used for this band)

'Animal Tracks' and 'The Animals Greatest Hits Show' are trading names registered to Steve Hutchinson (herein called the band). The user agrees not to use the names or any of its branding or logos without prior permission, and in all cases only in relation to the promotion of this band. As a recognised promoter, venue or selling agent of the band, we will allow you to use the band's registered trading names and logos in advertising material and on websites only for the purposes of advertising or promoting this band or its concerts. At no time will this give any further rights to the names, or rights to use the names for any other purpose.

The official posters for the band, and the band's website, clearly promote the performances as 'ANIMAL TRACKS' or 'THE ANIMALS GREATEST HITS SHOW' performed by previous members of The Animals.

Official posters to be used for the promotion of the concerts can be easily downloaded from the 'Download Official Posters' page in the 'Information for Promoters' section of the bands official website at www.animalsband.com.

Although the band is very pro-active in monitoring the advertising of its concerts, it can sometimes be very difficult to notice mistakes when dealing with foreign countries due to language unfamiliarity. The band do however operate a strict policy of cancelling any performance where they feel that the advertising may in any way be misleading to the public by incorrect wording on posters, incorrect media articles, or use of any names different to 'Animal Tracks' or 'The Animals Greatest Hits Show' and steps have not been made to correct the mistake. The band welcomes the reporting to them of any advertising that may be seen as misleading.

The band and its members do not in any way claim that they represent, or are affiliated to The Animals, Eric Burdon and The Animals, or any of the other bands or musicians whose songs are featured in their show.

DISCLAIMER

The band, or its management, cannot be held responsible for any misleading promotion created by third party advertisers or media journalism published without their consent, or for any publicity that has not been created or distributed by the band itself. Any such claim made against the band will be referred to the creator of the offending publication or article.
